GOLF FANS SHOW MID YEAR CLASS IN HOLIDAY PLAY

The New Year brought a large crowd of golfers to the Country club links and a number of good scores were made up by the holiday visitors at the club. Dr. K. H. Hannerer finished with the low score of 83 and T. K. Dunbar came in second with 87. A. C. McMillan made a good 91. T. Dunbar covered in 92.

Charles A. Stauffer had the low net with 92-28-68. H. L. Aller was next with 94-24-70.

The pairings for the regular monthly handicap play are:

First Flight

Dr. Hannerer vs. T. K. Dunbar.
A. C. McMillan vs. L. H. Chalmers.
D. Dunbar vs. G. E. Goodrich.
H. J. Jessup vs. H. H. Stone.

Second Flight

R. E. Sloan vs. F. S. Hildreth.
T. Dunbar vs. R. B. Brownfield.
H. L. Aller vs. C. A. Stauffer.
W. Bennett vs. H. Thompson.

Third Flight

L. S. Keeler vs. P. Barrows.
W. E. Ferguson vs. P. Bennett.
P. Winship vs. C. F. Alsworth.
G. Derrier vs. H. B. Allen.

Fourth Flight

J. J. Halloran vs. E. Lohr.
R. Murray vs. B. B. McCall.
P. Stahl vs. P. T. Merriweather.
H. Stevenson vs. J. Lonsan.

All players are allowed one week in which to play off or default.

The course is in very good shape and the golfers are taking a keener interest in play than ever before. Some good golf scores should be made during the season with all participants playing in mid-year form. Complete scores of the handicap play will be published each week.

Salt Lake Negro Says Champ Jawn Very Ungrateful

[REPUBLICAN A. P. LEASED WIRE] SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 3.—Jack Dempsey, world heavyweight pugilist, was made defendant in the district court here today in action filed by J. P. Burns, a negro, in which it is alleged that Dempsey has failed to pay Burns for special services performed between January 10 and March 15, 1920, amounting to $700.

It also is alleged that Burns loaned Dempsey $1500 between those same dates and a third allegation is that the plaintiff provided the pugilist with automobile and taxicab service during those dates to the value of $300, for which he says he had received no compensation.

Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, were served with papers in the case when they were in Salt Lake a week ago.

The Insider Says

Midget shortstop, Donie Bush, in speed he beats the band. He signs his yearly contract now With quick and nimble hand.

"Twas different thirteen years ago When he was young and fast. But now he is slowed up a bit, For youth don't always last.

Donie Bush now signs up his yearly contract to play with the Detroit Tigers as fast as he used to scoop up the ball at short.

Thirteen years ago Donie came up to the Tigers from Indianapolis. He was the fastest flash on two pins. He would have been a prize for any club to have annexed.

Signing a contract meant an annual battle with President Navin. But it is different now. Donie is still a great little player, but he is going and not coming. Therefore he signs on the dotted line without hesitation.

Navin appreciates the great service Donie has rendered the Bengals and while the figures for his 1921 document weren't made known it is reasonable to think that they were bigger than they were last year. Donie was satisfied, anyway.

But much trouble is expected before the winter has carried on and the spring winds blow over the lawns. Players have watched the crowded stands and they want their cut in the big dividends.

The usual talk of a players' fraternity went the round this year, but so far it hasn't done any more damage than giving the club owners a few thrills. Most owners will see to it that the players are taken care of to the satisfaction of the performers. A big harvest was enjoyed this year and another is anticipated.

Donie Bush has done a lot for the Tigers. He has served his best days there. Kid Gleason would be mighty glad to have him if some youngster crowded him off the Bengal lineup next year.

When Bush offered his services to the Cleveland Indians, following the Chapman tragedy, he endeavored himself to not only Cleveland but to every one in America. It was an impossible idea, but it showed Donie's heart was right.

That's what we need in baseball. More heart and less of the mercenary tactics would go a long way toward putting the game back on its two feet.

Donie won't be playing much longer. But he will never be forgotten. He's a real ball player. That's a fact.

Phoenix High School Basketball Title Is Captured By Seniors

The high school class basketball season closed last night with the Seniors winning the school championship defeating the Juniors. The Sophs and Freshies battled for the booby prize which was awarded the Sophs after the Freshmen stepped on the upper classmen with too many baskets.

The faculty basketball team made its first appearance last night trimming the Junior College team 40-7. The Junior College boys were willing, but the faculty had the edge before the game started. On Friday or Saturday the faculty will play the Indian School faculty to demonstrate their prowess on the gym floor.

The following prominent members of the high school faculty make up the aggregation of new stars: Guards, Carpenter, Christensen, Kraigbaum; center, Coach Robinson; forwards, Vene, Ralett Lehigh, Brownlee.

Friday afternoon the Coyotes will travel to Mesa where they will meet the Jewel City five in the first game for the state championship. The game will start at 4 o'clock.

Standing of the high school class teams: Seniors, Junior College, Juniors, Freshmen, Sophomores.

SUSPICIOUS CONDUCT

A motorist had been hailed into court and when his name was called the judge asked what the charges were.

"Suspicious actions, your honor," answered the policeman who had made the arrest.

"Suspicious action?" queried his honor. "What was he doing that he seemed suspicious?"

"Well," replied the officer, "he was running within the speed limit, sounding his horn properly and trying to keep on the right side of the street, so I arrested him."

Phoenix Girl Wins Swimming Laurels On Pacific Beaches

From Catalina island to Phoenix is not considered a long jump by rail and water, but there is a vast difference between the bathing beach at Catalina and the desert sands of Arizona.

Miss Sylvia Snell, now wintering in Phoenix seems to like the Arizona metropolis even though she misses the water sports that seem to play a big part in California outdoor life. Miss Snell claims Phoenix as her home, but the swimming records of the coast credit her with being a native of Catalina Island. For several seasons she has entered in swimming contests in California and during the past summer she gained prominence by a record swim from Avalon to Frog Rock, a distance of one and one-half miles, covering the course in one hour and ten minutes. Many expert swimmers have failed to swim this course, but the reports credit Miss Snell with swimming the one and one-half miles without showing evidence of being tired.

Miss Snell also doubles for Louise Lovely in motion pictures. Her most important movie part came in the filming of William Parham's "Wings of the Morning." In this film Miss Snell doubled for Louise Lovely in every swimming set and she is booked to work with the Goldwyn pictures commencing in May. She expects to take part in the Golden Gate swimming events during the coming summer and is confident she can defeat many of the famed San Francisco mermaids if given a chance. It would be quite a shock to Frisco if an Arizona girl won swimming honors from the California girls who live in the water practically the year round, yet Miss Snell has been defeating the girl swimmers of southern California for some time in the short contests. This year, however, she is planning on taking part in the endurance and long distance trials. All of which goes to prove that Arizona's desert is not such a handicap when an athlete decides to develop swimming ability, even though the early experience comes from the valley canals.

Echo Of Baseball War With Federals

[REPUBLICAN A. P. LEASED WIRE]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—By striking out its direction for a retrial, the district court of appeals amended today on motion of attorneys for the Baltimore Federal League baseball club, its judgment in which it set aside the award of the District of Columbia supreme court in favor of the federal club in a damage suit against the National and American league clubs for alleged monopolistic methods in restraint of trade. The action will expedite an appeal to the United States supreme court.

The award of the District of Columbia supreme court was for $264,000 because of alleged monopolistic methods by major league clubs involving especially control of players. The

A MAN WITHOUT A PRICE

Over in Baltimore is a man who is letting the trade winds go by him unnoticed.

He is Jack Dunn, owner of the Orioles—an aggregation that would make any major league ball club look like a sure-thing winner.

If Charles Comiskey could lay hands on the Baltimore stars he could fill up the holes in his riddled ball club and go on his way rejoicing instead of lamenting.

But it can't be done. At least it hasn't been done yet. Dunn seems to have no price on his stars. Talking high finance to him is all the same as hollering in a rain barrel.

The wise manager of the Orioles is sitting tight. He made money last year because he had a great ball club. He'll roll up the jack next season for the same reason.

Meanwhile big league clubs are ranting around and wishing they had the draft rule back in their code book.

Will Dunn fall off before the teams start south? Will he finally unload his stars? If he does who will get them?

Some think he will. But he hasn't yet.

It is kinda nice to find a baseball manager who doesn't seem to have a price.

1923 Futurity Stake Entries Are Closed

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Entries for the futurity stakes of 1923 closed today with what was declared to be a record number of nominations. Of entries tabulated up to today, Major August Belmont's stables led with 49, but it was reported that even larger strings would be found among the late entries, which include those of the Hancock, Madden and Harry Payne Whitney stables.
